Very pleased with this purchase. The CD that should come with the book is a must, particularly if you're a new guitarist like I am. It was also shipped very fast. It came in two days. I was very pleased. The book was used and in better condition than advertised.

Really, the book is great - I think it will be much better with the CD. is STUPID - you have to order them separately! I ordered the CD TWO AND A HALF WEEKS AGO, and they still haven't shipped it. I would recommend getting it ANYWHERE but from ! Barnes & Noble will sell you a copy with a CD. Go there. It's a great book - I've only been playing & taking lessons for 6 months, and I actually understand it! It's really well-written and logical, and goes into all kinds of good stuff - different ways to play an F chord, which I was having trouble with, also tells you how & why to play the alternating bass notes, stuff like that. And most of the songs aren't completely lame! I'm 46 years old - if you seriously think I am gonna play Cumbayah or Michael Row Your Boat, I will puke on your shoes. I lived through that hippie crap in the 70s, and folk music don't gotta be that way. More murder ballads, plz. Also, if you get a copy of this book without the CD, don't think you can go online to, say, the book publisher and download the CD or pay to download it or anything sensible like that. You can't. They're idiots. They have a great book, and they don't support it on their website.

I have used a few of these books and they are very well written. Using the CD along with it is the best, since you can hear how the music is supposed to hear. Very progressive, and complete.

Okay for what I was looking for.

Excellent Timing on the S&H!!!! It Holds perfectly and has great tension in the spring and doesn't bear down on the neck and frets of the guitar....EXCELLENT PRODUCT!!!!

Very few songs that I liked or knew. Didn't grab my interest at all. Waste of my money and time.
