Kindergarten-Grade 4 “Similar in illustrative concept to Jean Marzollo’s I Spy series (Scholastic), this book has colorful, busy photos of objects and lists of items associated with school for readers to locate. However, it also offers viewers some additional tasks: the two pages of each spread are identical except for seven differences, and each left-hand page contains a riddle, the answer to which is found on the page. As an extra challenge, children are also asked to find 4 aces, 6 clocks, 10 rabbits, etc. throughout the book. Even the covers contain items to seek. The clear images depict imaginative groupings. The penultimate spread provides hints on what readers should be looking for and answers to the riddles. Some of the conundrums may be challenging, and a few are a bit obtuse, but fun nonetheless. Children who enjoy the hidden-picture concept and/or riddles will love this book. It offers entertainment and an opportunity to hone observational skills rolled into one.” Lynda Ritterman, Atco Elementary School, Waterford, NJ Copyright © Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. This is not a new product. It is evident that this book is not new. There are scratches on the cover the binding is broken so the pages just fall open.

My 3 1/2 year old son loves the I-Spy book series. The Spot 7 books are definitely challenging-- two facing pages contain almost identical photos, with seven minor changes. Very challenging, but quite fun. This may be frustrating for some kids, but others who like to search and find will think it's a blast. Plus, there are riddles and hints at the back of the book to help.
