Tales Of Shiva

Synopsis

From his snowy abode on Mount Kailasa Lord Shiva travelled far and wide, answering the prayers of his devotees. But he was often in disguise to ensure that his favours went only to the deserving. And so it was that he battled with the dauntless Pandava Arjuna, cast his net into the sea as he mingled with humble fisherfolk, and emerged from the sand to kick aside even the mighty Yama, god of death.

Customer Reviews

I like the book as I like lord shivaHe is my favourite God and I had waited until my mother bought me this book

This is an independent and amazing bookGreat job with this book Anant pai you are a award-winning authorLots of loveHaley Rae mohanlal(only 13years old)

Our Kids Loved this

This is not material for children under 14 years of age. It is full of mindless violence with a strange storyline. Horrible representation of a great God Shiva. ACK cannot be expecting Children to read this nonsense.

Love the concept, the prices fair however the resolution of the images( in the sample book) for iPad is very :( the text and the images are fairly pixalated. Please scan them with higher resolution and I'll surely buy a lot more.
