Never Alone (True Friendship Book 5)

Synopsis

Never Alone; True Friendship Series: Book Five Summer has arrived and Brienne is looking forward to spending a month at Camp Laughing Water with her friends. Not having Joel there because of his trip to Brazil, she knows she will miss him but is happy they are both following God to the places He has led them. Brooke, Emily, and Tyler are excited about going too, but when an unexpected hitch makes their plans uncertain, they face a decision that isn't easy to make. Marissa, Allie, and a few others are affected by a sudden change in plans also and must seek God's guidance to follow the path in front of them, learning lessons about God's timing, His faithfulness, and knowing they are never alone.*Never Alone is the fifth book in the True Friendship series. Books in this series are recommended for ages twelve and up and are meant to be read in sequential order.

Customer Reviews

Another wonderful chapter in these characters lives. This book made Me laugh and made me cry, but most of all it made me think. I recommend to anyone with a love of Jesus that wants a sweet touching story to read.
