50 Shades

Synopsis

Sunglasses are the great equalizer. Celebrities wear them to blend in, the rest of us wear them to stand out. Either way, nothing else, except possibly the way one dances, tells you so much about who a person thinks they are than their choice of shades. 50 Shades is a wonderful hardback coffee table edition featuring 50 photographs of the last century's most iconic figures in the coolest sunglasses of the age. From Jackie O to Debbie Harry, Steve McQueen to Marilyn Monroe, Andy Warhol to Brian Jones, Elvis Presley to Yves Saint Laurent, 50 Shades features stunning photography reproduced to the highest quality and text from leading fashion writer Lauren Goldstein Crowe.

If you only buy one book containing the words 50 Shades, make it this one (November 8, 2012) Fifty shades of cool: iconic images of the sunglass-wearing elite. (Matilda Battersby The Independent, November 28, 2012) 50 atmospheric photographs of 50 of the world's best-known stars. (November 12, 2012) The best sunglasses ever caught on camera. (Nick Carvell G. Q., November 8, 2012) Doing simply what it says on the tin, it's a collection of beautiful images of incredibly cool people wearing sunglasses. (November 11, 2012)

I've been waiting for this book for weeks and it finally arrived this morning. It was a present for my girlfriend and she absolutely LOVED it. It's absolutely superb and very stylish little coffee table book with great photos and quotes. I am her hero today!

A very beautifully put together book, simple and perfect. 50 of the best celebs in images that are rarely seen, and don't get me started on the sunglasses!

Check out how GQ magazine describes Lauren Goldstein Crowe's book, 50 Shades:[...]This is a beautiful book which would make an excellent gift.
