Thank you, happy with purchase

Was expecting accompaniments as part of the music. Sadly, not so.

A few of the musical scores are selections, but over half are complete works of music. They are easy to play, and familiar tunes. It seems to me that the music gets harder as you work your way toward the back of the book. It appears that all the works are in the key of C. I'm an adult recorder player, and I like the book just fine. I think it would be ok for a younger player as well as the pieces are not too complicated. There is no introduction, or text in the book, just the musical notes. If you cannot read music for whatever reason, this book would not suit you. Of course if you don't read music, I think this would be a good way to practice. This book is certainly a beginner level book. I have been playing recorder for 3 weeks and I feel confident in playing most of the scores.

Great resource...I'm very happy with the material.

This material is easy enough for a recent beginner; but, challenging enough to make a new violinist like my granddaughter who's instructor says if she were any better after only one year in public school strings would almost qualify as a prodigy.
