Customer Reviews

All Time Out Guides are written by a team of local journalists.

We used the book everyday to plan our journey within the city and excursions to nearby towns. The itineraries were helpful, as we had a limited amount of time. Their up-to-date recommendations for restaurants, coffee shops and nightlife were accurate and reliable - just what you expect from Time Out. Do not miss going to the "Time Out Mercado da Ribeira" (page 94) to sample the best food and desserts from more than 30 restaurants, and be a part of the vibrant atmosphere in a vast room filled with hundreds of locals and tourists. The only thing I would add to the book is a contour map of Lisbon - one centimeter on a flat map of this city can account for a 1000 foot change of elevation. Plan accordingly and bring a good pair of shoes - the cobbles are slippery with leather soles.

Thanks to this guide by trip to Lisbon was fantastic. It is very thorough and it has a lot of useful and detailed information. Very easy to use and understand.

I really liked the guide before we got to Lisbon, in how it was laid out, and the short snippets it gave, but as soon as we got to Lisbon, it became clear that all of their recommendations were just awful places. None of the best places we found were because of this guide. Go with Lonely Planet or something else... this was a waste of money.
