Customer Reviews

I really liked the book because it wasn't about her trying to get revenge. She had Tracy's back even after he left her and his son. She's really the definition of down because any other women would of sued his ass for child support. 5150 NATION holla

I have been a fan of Ms. Ortiz for a long time for more reasons than one. This beautiful woman and mother really broken down the validity of her love for her ex-husband in this book. I truly admire her courage and drive through out her life. Great read for anyone.

Darlene was the first true sex symbol of Hip Hop. Her story is very intriguing before & after she was a hip hop princess. It's mind boggling why Ice never officially married her. Darlene was definitely marriage material. Some people just don't realize how lucky they are to have a woman as beautiful & committed as Darlene. I wish I could meet her one day. She was my first hip hop crush, even before my girl MC Lyte. Darlene's book was far more interesting than Ice's story. I wish u the best Darlene & I will keep your book hoping one day I can meet you and have you autograph it!!!!

Book was ok. It doesn't really tell many compelling stories and Ms. Ortiz does not seem to want to reveal a lot of specific details. Overall, I wouldn't recommend unless you were really a fan of Ms. Ortiz.

Buckle up! Yes, it's a story about the Queen of the West Coast rap scene but it's the early life that leads up to that, that makes the book for me. This is a love story, a rags to riches story and a story of perseverance under the best and worst of times. If you're looking for dirt and gossip, SORRY, this isn't that book. Darlene keeps it classy and honest. This book is loaded with a great mix of stories from the early hip hop era and personal experiences. I'd recommend this book to any young person. Thanks Darlene!

A very informative read for anyone interested in Hip-hop. Having a narrative written by a female that was a quintessential member of that movement was very useful in her discussion of Hip-hop's history.

I watch Darlene Ortiz every week on the Corey Holcomb 5150 show and she's hilarious, but reading this book gave me more insight and depth into know who she is. The book takes us through her abusive childhood to her relationship with rapper Ice-T, and her life after. Great book, Great read!

Very Enlightening! An Easy Read! Highly Recommended!
