The guide was very handy and helpful during a recent trip to the Bay Area and Napa. I like the Fodor guides for U.S. travel. They have more information about local interest than AAA in my opinion, and the construction is sturdier. But, of course, AAA guides are free to members.

It was ok. I spent most time looking up different locations that we wanted to see rather than planning the vacation around the book. It wasn't worth the money but I did pass it along to a friend so maybe she will use it more than I did.

Cant wait to go back!!

We use these books whenever we travel Europe because they are the perfect guide. This book has been no exception. Great info, good mapping and easy to navigate through. A must have travel companion.

Lots of good information great book and very informative.

Excellent guide to the city. I wish it had more specified "walking tours" in various neighborhoods. Comes with nice foldout map.

Very helpful when we went to San Francisco! Just wish I had read the section on restaurants in Chinatown first.
