Have learned french with this book over several years. Just repurchased the kindle version. Very happy with the layout of it.

I bought the ebook , which is fine. However, have not been able to download the audio from Wiley. Went to their landing page and filled in all the necessary information and nothing happened. Would like to know how to do this successfully. Is there even an audio for the Kindle addition? Went to Wiley to get help and was so confusing didn't know where to start.

I am very fond of this book. Wonderful instructions written in a VERY "reachable" manner. I have undertaken Rosetta Stone, and this is the perfect complement for those lessons. SO glad I purchased this book...

First time buying a "for dummies" book, and I was very content. They break the language down so you can build at a good, steady, and long term rate. If you're studious and disciplined then you will get a lot from this book.

Very comprehensive review of the French language or for those new to it. Very easy to follow and has a dictionary at the end. I will use it over the winter to refresh my high school French before a trip. I have not used the CD yet.

Apparently I am still too dumb!

Excellent book

I think it is a little more than what I need. However, I am enjoying a revival of the French I took in High School.
