Faith That Prevails

Synopsis

Smith Wigglesworth was a British evangelist who was important in the early history of Pentecostalism. Some of his sermons were transcribed for Pentecostal magazines, and these were collected into two books: Ever Increasing Faith and Faith that Prevails. --This text refers to an alternate Kindle Edition edition.

Customer Reviews

In this relatively short book by Smith Wigglesworth I found wonderful stories about the impact of the wisdom and power of God, Christ Jesus, on the lives of persons he encountered. No longer relying on "human plans and human devices and human energy," he told how he looked to God for every thing. For each condition of "human helplessness and human insufficiency" he saw, this man asked, "Lord, what shall

I do here? ÆfÂçÃ â Ñ Â• and reported magnificent changes in each person ÆfÂçÃ â Ñ â œ terminal diseases healed, failing businesses excelled beyond their goals and ÆfÂçÃ â Ñ Â“difficult, troubled and mean people ÆfÂçÃ â Ñ Â• became gentle and thoroughly delightful to be around. While familiar to some extent with Wigglesworth, I had not seen any of his books until I purchased this one through a link in the reference section of ÆfÂçÃ â Ñ Â“The Awakening: 1963 Lectures ÆfÂçÃ â Ñ Â• (Neville). I wanted to see how the editor had utilized the Neville-Wigglesworth connection.

WOW! What else is there to say except a boost in faith and love for the mercy and compassion God has for his people. Love the power of God. This is a book for anyone that believes in the TRUE Christ. Not a book for reformers or baptist cessationist. They will only blaspheme the spirit so be careful what pigs you hand this book to. This book is best for those who are leery about the working of the power of God or coming out of a cessationist church like my self. Helped me tremendously.

I'm challenged to dig deeper into the word of God, to seek him more and more to enquirer of him more and more. I'm challenged to seek wisdom and revelation from God daily. Not to ever be complacent with the status quo but to know that everyday, he wants to do something new, he wants to take me into a new level of Glory. I'm challenged as a Christian never to settle for today's miracle and blessing but to allow God to take charge and his will be done daily.

I rated this book as I did because of the rich content. It stirred up my heart to believe God for the impossible. His life is a wonderful example. The book is word based, faith comes by hearing, hearing by the word of God.

This book expounded on the real realities of "faith in God" and desiring to go beyond the level of basic faith into the "fullness of God".

Enjoyable to read, encouraging.

This is a book every Christian who hungers for God must read. It is a wonderful book with God's Willingness to show his grace and amazing power when we walk in a higher realm than what we Feel hear and touch. It is so powerful but so simple. It is about the difference between praying in the spiritual realm and the physical realm. It shows how when we walk in the spirit and pray in the Spirit that we get results. It is about simple childlike faith that pleases God. It certainly is not about theology that fill a christian's mind with a bunch of head knowledge and denies the power thereof. I got the kindle version and it worked well. I've downloaded 2 of his other books which I plan on enjoying reading soon.

This book is written in simple, easy to understand language. The scriptural references are relevant to the subject matter. I would recommend highly to all new Christians. Good book for devotionals and Bible study.
