A Stroke Of Faith: A Stroke Survivor's Story Of A Second Chance At Living A Life Of Significance

Synopsis

Mark Moore always believed he was in charge of his life. All that changed on a beautiful Saturday morning in May 2007. Suddenly he was no longer in control of anything. Though his life will never return to his pre-stroke normality, through this crisis, he has gained a deeper understanding of the centrality of God's role in his life and in all of our lives. A STROKE OF FAITH tells the story of moving from acceptance to surrender and from hope to faith. It reveals God's work in Mark's life as He transformed him from thinking he had everything under control to knowing God has had control all along.

Customer Reviews

An unforgettable story of a man's ability to overcome. Mark unveils his journey through stroke recovery with relentless courage and unshakable honesty. I was humbled by Mark's willingness to share his struggles and triumphs side by side - a true testament to the power of the human spirit. — Lonnie G. Bunch III, Founding Director, National Museum of African American History and Culture
Mark's story reminds us that we all have the power to overcome the unthinkable... an important reminder to all of us about the unshakable place of family and faith as we face life's struggles and triumphs. — Lee Woodruff, New York Times bestselling author and CBS This Morning contributor

Mark Moore is a philanthropist and successful businessman. Along with his wife, Brenda, Mark has established the Mark and Brenda Moore and Family Foundation, through which he supports advances in healthcare, education, culture and the arts, and Christian evangelism. Prior to engaging full time in his philanthropic work, Mark was Chief Operating Officer and co-owner of Segovia, Inc., a leading provider of global internet protocol services to the US Defense Department.
